25. ESSAY WRITING

A. Write an essay on each of the following :

1. CHRISTMAS

Christmas is a holy festival of Christians. Lord Jesus Christ was born on 25th of December. So, Christmas is celebrated on this day.

Houses and churches are cleaned and white-washed. These are decorated with flowers, banners, buntings and crosses made of wood or metal. The altar of Jesus Christ and Mother Mary are also decorated with candles and flowers. A separate cradle is made for the baby Jesus in the courtyard of the church.

After the midnight prayers at the church, Christians go home and feast. They beautify their homes with coloured lights and a Christmas tree. At the foot of the tree, they place gifts for each other. Small children hang their stockings near their bed. They believe that Santa Clause will come in the night and place gifts in it. People hold parties and dinners to celebrate the occasion. They sing Christmas hymns and Christmas carols.

The festival comes to an end amidst fun and laughter. It teaches us the value of love and sacrifice.
2. MY PET DOG

I have a pet—a dog in my house. It is an Indian dog. It is as white as milk. It has a long curly tail and lovely ears. It is of medium height. It looks very active.
The dog takes meat and also milk, rice, chapati and similar other articles of food. I take it to a morning and evening walk. During walking, it is very active and happy. Though Indian dogs are not so beautiful or powerful as compared with European dogs, yet my dog is an exception. It is extra beautiful and strong.
My dog is very loyal and watchful. It keeps a strict watch over my house in our absence. It does not permit anyone to enter the house until I or anybody else in the house asks him to do so. It is due to my pet that, with God’s grace, no theft has ever been committed in the house.
I felt the keeping of a pet when it fell ill for two months. I had to spend many sleepless nights to attend to it. A pet becomes very troublesome if it goes mad. It is a great asset to the house. May it live long with a good health.

3. THE HORSE

The horse is a noble domestic animal. It is known for its beauty, strength, faithfulness and quick movements. It is found in almost every country.
The horse is a four footed animal. It has no horns. It has large eyes and ears. It has a long neck with long hair grown on it. Its skin is smooth. All these make it handsome. Its hoofs are hard. Horses are of several sizes and colours. It lives on hay, grass, gram, oats etc. It requires to be cleaned or rubbed everyday.
A horse is used for drawing carriages, and riding also. In Russia and Europe, a horse is used for ploughing. Horse played a great role in battles in olden times. In the modern scientific age too, horses are trained to show tricks in circus shows.
A horse is also famous for its loyalty. The story of Chetak is well known to all. At the end of the Battle of Haldighati, enemies chased Rana Pratap who was on Chetak’s back. But Chetak carried his master far away to a safe place saving his life. A horse, therefore, is very useful for man.
4. THE DIWALI

Diwali is one of the most important festival of the Hindus. Diwali i.e., Deepawali means a row of burning diyas (earthen lamps). It is a festival of lights. It is celebrated all over India. When Rama returned to Ayodhya after fourteen years of exile and after winning a great victory over Ravana, Diwali was celebrated by the Ayodhya people. It has been going on since then. The festival falls in October or November every year. It marks the beginning of winter season. Preparations for this festival start many days before the festival. The houses are cleaned and white-washed. The rooms are decorated with pictures of gods and goddesses. There is a great hustle and bustle in the markets on this day. The sweet shops display different varieties of sweets. People purchase various items needed for Diwali prayers. They also purchase utensils and new clothes as a good omen. They exchange sweets. In the evening, people illuminate their shops and houses with electric bulbs, candles and earthen lamps. It makes a very beautiful sight. The festival is good except the social evils of gambling, drinking and too much bursting of crackers which leads to destruction of property by fire. This should be avoided.

5. MY BIRTHDAY PARTY

My birthday falls on 2nd of September. This year, I celebrated it with a great pomp and show. About a fortnight in advance, I sent invitations to all my friends. My parents too sent these to their near and dear ones. Orchestra was also booked for the occasion after booking of a Banquet Hall. The Hall was only a little away from my house. On my birthday, all my friends and relations gathered in the Hall in the evening. They were served with soft drinks followed by coffee/tea as per their choice. At about 7:00 p.m., a big cake with some candles perched on it was placed on a high square table. In the presence of a large gathering, the candles were ignited and cake cut by me. As soon as I cut the cake, the hall resounded with the words, “Happy Birthday to you”. The words continued for sometime. The orchestra presented their best. The cake was distributed to all present. All gave me gifts in cash or kind. My parents gave me a cricket-kit which I wanted badly. People took their meals and bade goodbye at about 8:00 p.m. I enjoyed the occasion very much. My friends and some of my relations danced along with my parents. Some of them sang songs/ghazals.

6. CHILDREN’S DAY

Jawaharlal Nehru was born on 14th of Nov. 1889. He was the first Prime Minister of India from 1947 to May, 1964. He loved children very much. He used to say that if children are taken care of well, the future of the nation is safe. He once expressed his desire that in case the nation wants to celebrate his birthday, it should be observed as ‘Children’s day’. Since then, his birthday is celebrated as such. The day is celebrated all over the country in all the schools and else where. The children go to their schools in gay mood. They perform their prayers and after the prayers the principal, delivers a speech. He tells them about Late Shri Nehru’s love for the children. He also tells them what he had done for them when he was the Prime Minister and what schemes he had started for their welfare. On this day, the present government also starts some schemes for children’s benefit. All the children look very happy on the day.

1. MY SCHOOL

I study in a public school. It stands by the roadside. It has a large building. It has 15 classrooms and a big hall. It has an office and a library. It has big lawns. It has a small garden also. A large playground is there. A canteen and a bookshop are there too. The building of my school is very grand. It is airy and well-lighted. We read books in the library. The gardener looks after the garden. We have tea at the canteen. We play in the playground.
We all come to school everyday. We learn, read and write here. We play and have fun here. We learn painting and music here. We learn manners too. Our teachers love us and teach us. Our school is like a big home.

2. MY CLASSROOM
Our school has many classrooms. All the classrooms are very neat and clean. Our class III A is on the first floor. It is very neat and clean because our class leader takes special care for keeping it clean. We decorate and arrange it with beautiful flowers. It is a very big room. The benches and desks are arranged in order. There are forty benches and desks. There is a big black board. The room has light and fans, which make us comfortable. We paste many pictures and charts on the walls which makes us more delighted.

3. MY SCHOOL PEON
There is a peon in our school. His name is Ramu. He is about thirty-five year old. He is tall and strong. He always smiles. He wears neat clothes. Every one in the school knows him. He is dutiful. He rings the bell at fixed hours. He has no time to rest during school hours. Early in the morning, he cleans the office furniture and desks of all the classrooms. He is polite with everyone. The students of our school love and respect him. He is sometimes strict if any student destroys school property. He lives in one corner of the school building with his small family. He also keeps watch after school is closed. He is a hard-working man. ‘Duty is beauty’ is the secret of his life.

4. DUSSEHRA
Dussehra is a big festival of India. It falls in the month of September or October. It is related to Lord Rama’s life. Rama was a noble prince of Ayodhya. He was sent to the forest by his stepmother. Ravana was the King of Lanka. He was very wicked.
Ravana took away Rama’s wife Sita when Rama was not in his hut. Rama attacked Ravana and killed him. Dussehra is celebrated to mark Rama’s victory. It is celebrated for ten days. It stands for the victory of good over evil.

Dussehra is celebrated in every town. A big fair is held in the open. People go to see the fair in their best clothes. They buy sweets and toys. Children are very happy. They play with bows and arrows.

On the last day, the effigies of Ravana and his family are set up. They are set on fire in the evening. It marks their death. It shows the fall of evil.

5. INDEPENDENCE DAY

India became free on 15th August, 1947. Since then Independence day is celebrated on this Day. The function is observed throughout the country. The main function is held at Red Fort in Delhi. Seating arrangement for V.I.Ps and for the public is made much in advance.

The Prime Minister pays tribute to the Father of the Nation-Mahatma Gandhi in the early hours of the day. He unfurls the national flag (tricolour) at Red Fort. Twenty-one gun salute is given to the national flag after the Prime Minister has inspected a guard of honour.

The Prime Minister delivers a speech. He tells the people about the progress made by the country. He also tells the future plans of his government. He requests the people to remain united against divisive forces and give their cooperation to take the country to new heights. He ends his speech with the slogan ‘Jai Hind’.

6. MY TEACHER

Mr. Dutt is our English teacher. He is a young teacher. He comes from a noble family. He is good looking, healthy and strong. He is an M.A. (English) B.Ed. He is really a master of his subject.

His manner of teaching is excellent. All of us follow him. His result is excellent. Many students of his class secure distinction marks and above. He never comes late. He checks homework of every student minutely. He encourage his students to read books on literature to enrich their vocabulary. He motivates students to take part in debates, essay competitions, quizzes and dramas to develop their all round character and personality. He is my favourite teacher. He has all the qualities of an ideal teacher. He is kind and sympathetic too.
