Comprehension

A. 1. (a) Nicholas’ younger brother, his cousins along with their aunt formed the party.

   (b) The party drove off to Jagborough sands.

   (c) The party lacked high spirits because Bobby’s boots were very tight and hurting him. His cousin sister cried because she had scraped her knee painfully against the step of a carriage as she was scrambling in.

   2. (a) Nicholas was complaining to the aunt.

   (b) Nicholas told twice to his aunt about Bobby’s boots. He told her that the boots were very tight and hurting him.

   (c) After hearing the statement, aunt told Nicholas that he was not supposed to go to the gooseberry garden.

   3. (a) ‘He’ refers to Nicholas.

   (b) The plan was to steal the key, and enter the lumber room.

   (c) Yes, he succeeded in his plan.

   4. (a) Aunt’s voice has been referred here.

   (b) The speaker asked to fetch the ladder because she was slipped into the rainwater tank.

   (c) Nicholas asked for the strawberry jam for tea. He asked for this because yesterday aunt told, there wasn’t any. He knew there were four jars in the cupboard.
1. Nicholas was in disgrace because he had deliberately put a frog in his milk.

2. Nicholas’s aunt deliberately made Jagborough expedition in order to punish Nicholas. He was left out of his expedition. The motive behind it was to make him realise his mistake and misconduct.

3. If all the children sinned collectively, they were suddenly informed of a circus in a neighbouring town. It used to be a circus of unrivalled merit, and had big number of elephants. Not being taken to that circus was the punishment for their misconduct.

4. The aunt spent so much time in the garden, although she had other work to do because she wanted to keep a watch on the two doors that led to the gooseberry garden.

5. Nicholas stood on a chair in the library and reached a shelf on which the key of the lumber room was reposed. He inserted the key into the lock, and the doors opened.

6. Nicholas spent his time by teasing the aunt. He tried to enter the gooseberry garden, and then explored the lumber room.

7. The things Nicholas discovered in the lumber room were a piece of framed tapestry - a kind of fire screen, Indian hangings, a man dressed in the hunting costume, two spotted dogs, and more than four wolves. There were also quaint twisted candlesticks in the shape of snakes, a teapot fashioned like a china duck, a carved sandalwood box packed tight with an aromatic cotton wool, and a book with a colourful pictures of fanciful birds.

8. Tapestry was a living breathing story. It had a man, dressed in the hunting costume of some remote period who had just transfixed a stag with an arrow. The two spotted dogs that were springing forward to join in the chase had evidently been trained. Four galloping wolves were seen coming in his direction through the wood. The man had only two arrows left in his quiver. All one knew about his skill in shooting was that he could hit a large stag at a ridiculously short range. Nicholas sat for long, watching the scene. He was inclined to think that there were more than four wolves, and that the man and his dogs were in a tight corner.

9. Nicholas teased his aunt when she slipped into the rainwater tank by asking strawberry jam for tea to which aunt agreed. Then, he told that she is the evil one and not his aunt.

10. Children failed to enjoy themselves at the Jagborough because the tide was at its highest when the children arrived. There had been no sands to play on. Also, the tightness of Bobby’s shoes had had a disastrous effect on his temper whole afternoon.
